

The War in Europe

What Can Psychology and Psychological Communities Say and Do?

Registration: <https://tinyurl.com/yys73563>
Online event on December 6, 2023, from 14:00 to 16:00 CET.

Moderators: Dr. Robertas Povilaitis, Director, European Federation of Psychologists' Associations Sabine Steyaert, Executive Director, European Federation of Psychologists' Associations
14:00 – 14:20	Opening Petras Auštrevičius, Member of European Parliament  Prof. Christoph Steinebach, President of the European Federation of Psychologists' Associations  Dr. Valeriia Palii, President, National Psychological Association of Ukraine
14:20 – 15:10	War Challenges Addressed by Ukrainian Psychologists  Psychological support hotline: building bridges between Ukrainians abroad Dr. Valeriia Palii, President, National Psychological Association of Ukraine; Kyiv School of Economics  Steps to the Future: Prevention of Corruption Nadiia Diatel, Coordinator, National Psychological Association of Ukraine; Institute for Social and Political Psychology; National Academy of Educational Sciences of Ukraine  Mental Health Legislation in Ukraine: moving psychologists out of the shadow Dr. Vitalii Klymchuk, Vice-President, National Psychological Association of Ukraine; Mental Health for Ukraine Project; University of Luxembourg  Psychology of eating behavior: how we support Ukrainians? Yuliia Bryhadyr, Member of Eating Disorders Division, National Psychological Association of Ukraine; Mental Health expert in MH4U project  Psychological support of pregnant women, young mothers and women in need in Ukraine and during forced migration Vitalina Ustenko, National Psychological Association of Ukraine, moderator of the group "Psychological Support for Pregnant Women, Young Mothers, and Women Facing Domestic Violence"

	Features of Work with People Who Have Disabilities for Employment Services Dr. Ganna Naydonova, moderator of Mental Health Division, National Psychological Association of Ukraine; National Taras Shevchenko University of Kyiv Providing the needs of psychologists for rapid and quality psychological assessment during the war period Oleg Burlachuk, Secretary, National Psychological Association of Ukraine War challenges for the ethics of psychological support Dr. Svitlana Chunikhina, Head of the Ethics Committee, National Psychological Association of Ukraine; Institute for Social and Political Psychology; National Academy of Educational Sciences of Ukraine
15:10 – 15:20	The work of the Standing Committee Crisis, Disaster and Trauma Psychology focused on the psychosocial support of victims of war and refugees in Europe Magda Rooze, MA/MBA, Convenor of EFPA Standing Committee Crisis, Disaster and Trauma Psychology
15:20 – 15:50	Panel discussion “Leaders in Conversation: What Psychology and Psychological Communities Are Saying and Doing” Host: Nicola Gale, Vice-President, European Federation of Psychologists’ Associations Panelists: Dr. Arthur C. Evans, Chief Executive Officer, American Psychological Association Prof. Lori Foster, President, International Association of Applied Psychology Prof. German Gutierrez, President, International Union of Psychological Science Dr. Valeriia Palii, President, National Psychological Association of Ukraine Prof. Christoph Steinebach, President, European Federation of Psychologists’ Associations
15:55 – 16:00	Closing