

The EU Health Policy Platform will host a live webinar, following this agenda:

SESSION 1 - 8 November (9.00 – 12.00 CET)

Chair: Merry Bullock, Estonian Union of Psychologists and International Council of Psychologists

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| 9:00 – 9:05 | Opening words |
| 9:05 – 9:20 | Health concerns and well-being of Ukrainian refugees in Estonia since 2022: a population-based survey Rainer Reile, National Institute for Health Development, Estonia |
| 9:20 – 9:35 | Wartime mental health needs, pre-existing and deriving from the war. The systemic and regulatory response from Ukrainian health system Vitalii Klymchuk, University of Luxembourg, National Psychological Association of Ukraine |
| 9:35 – 9:50 | Psychological preparedness of reservists under conditions of war in Europe Jorma Helenurm, Estonian Defence Forces |
| 9:50 – 10:05 | “War Near Us”: impact on Mental Health and societal proactive coping Neringa Grigutytė, Vilnius University |
| 10:05 – 10:20 | Break |
| 10:20 – 10:35 | Psychosocial support programme MindSpring for Ukrainian refugees in Estonia Laura Ombler, Estonian Refugee Council |
| 10:35 - 10:50 | Ukrainian psychologists working in Estonia Nataliia Cheporniuk, psychologist and social worker |
| 10:50 – 11:50 | Panel discussion Moderator : Jaanika Merilo, NGO Heroiam Slava Panelists : Rainer Reile, Vitalii Klymchuk, Jorma Helenurm, Neringa Grigutytė, Laura Ombler, Nataliia Cheporniuk |
| 11:50 - 12:00 | Q&A and concluding remarks |
